

Gresham lecture - about congenital heart defects

This 43 minute lecture, "The Heart: An Introduction", presented by Mr. Martin Elliott of London UK, is exceptional. It covers the formation of the heart, the understanding of the heart since ancient times, historical and modern diagnostic techniques, and wonderful animations demonstrating some of the common defects. This lecture will be followed by one on congenital heart surgery, which will also be of interest to patients and families.

Please click HERE to watch the video.