

Make an Impact – Join Our Board

Board Positions Available

The Canadian Congenital Heart Alliance (CCHA) is looking for its next generation of leaders to fill critical positions on our national Board of Directors, the elected group of volunteers who support the work of CCHA and provide mission-based leadership and strategic governance.

The CCHA is a volunteer-run charity. Our mission is to improve the quality of life and health outcomes for individuals with congenital heart disease (CHD) by raising awareness, providing peer support and mentoring, advocacy, and advancing research.

The CCHA's Nominating Committee needs your help to identify candidates for the Board. We are looking for committed people who have the time and expertise to share with our working board.

Time to Get Involved

The Nominating Committee has identified the following as high-priority goals for recruitment:

Expertise

Expertise in the following areas:

- Experience on a governance non-profit board
- Business and philanthropy
- Fundraising/development expertise
- Communications, media relations, social media, marketing and advertising
- Legislative/public policy expertise

Diversity

As an organization whose mission is to serve the entire CHD community, we want a Board that reflects the full diversity of that community, including:

- Family members of an adult or child with CHD
- Adults with CHD
- Professionals involved in the CHD community

Personality Traits

Every board member elected should possess:

- A passion for the CCHA mission
- A willingness to dedicate time and expertise to the organization
- An understanding and ability to be a consensus builder
- A commitment to engaging others in their community
